Graffiti:

Downtown Fredericksburg, 10/27, 4:00 a.m. A patrol officer discovered that an unknown person used spray paint to mark graffiti on several structures and properties in the downtown district. The graffiti appears to be a combination of the tags “HDLS” and “SKRRT” and the image of a dragon.

The following properties were targeted:

- Caroline Square, 914 Caroline Street
- C.I.S. Sportswear, 806 Caroline Street
- Caroline Curiosity Shop, 212 George Street
- 200 block Hanover Street
- 100 block Hanover Street
- 900 block Sophia Street

Since Monday, October 27, 11 reports have been filed for graffiti in the downtown district and more than 20 structures tagged. The investigation is ongoing. Anyone with information about the recent graffiti can contact Detective Lamb at (540) 654-5740.

Unlawful Entry:

400 block Maple Court, 10/27, 9:30 p.m. A city resident reported that he arrived home, opened his front door, and discovered an unknown male standing in his living room. The suspect then fled the residence through the backdoor. No items were missing from the apartment. The suspect is described as approximately 5’7” – 5’9”, average build, and was wearing a blue and white sweatshirt at the time of the incident. The investigation is ongoing.

Arrests:

Nnamdi Ironi, 18, of Spotsylvania County was arrested on a charge of embezzlement (felony).

Travis Mullins, 18, of Fredericksburg was arrested on a charge of shoplifting. Mullins was released on a summons.
